

Upgrade to Google+

Get more out of Google by using Google+

Whether you're using Gmail, Search, YouTube, Maps, or Blogger, Google+ gives you new ways to share the right things with the right people.

Gmail »
Video Chat with up to nine people at once, find emails from the people you care about, share photos effortlessly and more.

Maps »
Send directions and share the places you love with just the right people, right from Google Maps.

Blogger »
Easily share your posts on Google+ so that you can expand the audience for your blog.

Chrome »
Recommend sites, share pages, and always stay up-to-date with the people in your Google+ circles.

News »
Get the latest from your favorite authors, and see the articles your friends are sharing right in Google News.

Search »
Search everything on the web, plus your photos, posts from your circles, and the things your friends have shared with you.

Android »
Get photos that upload as you take them, group chats instead of multiple texts, and video chats with friends.

Music »
Give the people in your Google+ circles a free listen to the songs you buy through Google Music.

Earth »
Share images of the places you visit in Google Earth to just the right people using Google+.

Youtube »
See which videos your friends are sharing and watch any video with up to nine friends at once.
